Cubmaster's Minute

At times, you may think things are tough especially when you are asked to do chores and your parents/teachers correct you. But if you think about it for a moment, you should realize you have a good life. You have food, a home to live/sleep in, a school to go to learn, and you have your friends. You also have a family who loves you. I am sure your family does lots of Good Turns for you that you may not think about.

In November, we're going to do a Good Turn for two reasons:

- 1. The Scout Oath pledges us to help other people at all times.*
- 2. We owe something to those around us – our parents and our community.*

I expect to see all of you out on November 9/10 and 16 for Scouting for Food not because you have to but because you want to.

If you do not get this food, people in our community will have less to eat.
